

British Horse Society
in conjunction with
Aspley Guise and District Riding Club

Are you confident enough to compete your horse?

Ginny Oakley will ensure you are!

Ever wondered why your competition scores do not reflect the work you put into your horse at home?

Ever wondered why your horse seems to know it is a show day even though you have put on the same brushing boots you use everyday?

Ginny is hosting a question and answer session about preparing and dealing with competition nerves covering preparation, warm up and the competition itself - in all disciplines

17 April 2007
